SENIOR HONORARY SOCIETY ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

THE Oracle Society is a very young organization which was founded three years ago by our former Dean of Women, Mrs. Spencer. The purpose of this organization is to recognize the attainments of the students in Scholarship, Outside Activities, Personality, and Character. One of the principal aims is the fostering of the same qualities in the Student Body at large. This can be accomplished because the membership is drawn equally from the various affiliated schools.

The Oracle, Senior Honorary Society, recently elected Elizabeth Cecil Krueger and George Krueger to its membership as representative Seniors from the Westminster Choir.

Election into this Society is made during the second semester of school when each Dean submits a list of names that are eligible to the organization. From the list no more than three are chosen, or less, according to the will of the members.

We are happy to announce that the members for the next years' Oracle Society are:

General Music: Margueretta Shanamon and Mary E. Linton.

Williams School: Robert de Lany, Pauline Feinstein and Dorothy Wein.

Public School Music: Dorothy Tennant and Mary Jane MacPhail.

Physical Education: Ray Sweeny and Alva Ogsbury.

Band School: Frederick Reinsmith and Gilbert Latham.

Westminster Choir School: Virginia Fisher, Ruth Painter, and Hester Foster.

Initiation and banquet will take place immediately after the spring vacation.

Plans for the affair are being formulated with the purpose of making the event an outstanding one.

Little Theatre Shows at Student Prices

A special price of admission has been arranged for the benefit of students who wish to attend the stock presentations in Little Theatre. A ticket for all three shows may be purchased by students for $1.50. Students who spend the vacation away from Ithaca may attend the first and last shows of the series by buying a two-show ticket for $1.00. Appearing with the guest stars in this evening's presentation, "This Thing Called Love," are Arthur Niedick, Lois Conant, Marshall Whitehead, Emma Lieb, Roland Fernand, Emily Roberts, Eleanor Leonard, and John Nash.

Dean Brown will Direct Conference Singers at Chicago Convention

DEAN Brown of the Public School Music Institution, left Saturday for Chicago where he is attending the Music Supervisors National Conference. Mr. Brown will conduct the singing Thursday night (tonight). Between six and seven thousand people are expected to be in attendance at the conference which is held every two years.

Dean Brown was president of the first sectional conference which was organized in Boston in 1917. It was known as the Eastern Music Supervisor's Conference. Mr. Brown is now on the advisory council to the conference. Other sectional conferences are in the South, West and Northwest.

Mrs. Brown accompanied Dean Brown on the trip. They expect to return March 30. Mr. Brown is associate editor of the Musical Courier and his description of the conference will appear in that magazine.

NEW FRATERNITY ORGANIZED FOR I.C.M. ATHLETES

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the organization of an eighth fraternal group in the Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated Schools. The new organization is composed of students in this institution who are actively interested in athletics, and is named Iota Pi Alpha. At present the order consists of fifteen members. They plan to affiliate soon with the national fraternity of physical education, Sigma Delta Psi.

The young men of the newly organized fraternity have been looking at several large houses on Tioga and Cayuga streets and will occupy a house of their own next September. They have accepted a charter and code of by-laws recently drawn up for them by Judge Blood of this city. At present the meetings are held every Wednesday in a suite of rooms at 413 South Cayuga Street.

They plan to become prominently active on April 25, when they sponsor a formal dance at the I. S. P. E. gymnasium.

Officers of Iota Pi Alpha are John Alofs, President; Alan Mitcheltree, first vice-president; Gordon Snider, second vice-president; Raymond Benjamin, secretary; Richard Messer, treasurer. Additional members are Thomas Crawley, Dominic Rebolto, Lester Campbell, Philip Coombe, James Smith, John Fague, Nelson McGinn, Edmund Cioneck, Malcom Maxon, and Ned Walden.

The gentlemen of the fraternity have selected for their pin a shield-shaped insignia on the face of which are the Greek initials of the fraternity and the characteristic physical education symbol, The Discus Thrower.

The Ithaca School of Physical Education was recently chartered to membership in the World's Sportsmanship Brotherhood.

Professional Players to Appear in The Little Theatre Tonight

CONSIDERABLE interest is being shown at the Conservatory in the presence of Albert McGovern and Ethel Wayland, professional actors who will be seen in Little Theatre during the next three weeks. They are scheduled to appear in three plays, the first of which opens Thursday night. It is entitled, "This Thing Called Love" and several capable students in the Williams school will be seen in the piece in supporting roles. This comedy was enthusiastically accepted in New York. During the evenings of April 3, 4, and 5 the company will produce "Jonsey," a three-act comedy which enjoyed a remarkable season on Broadway. A popular current Broadway production will appear in Little Theatre the week of the students' return from spring vacation trips.

A special price offer is at the disposal of students of I. C. M. Tickets for two performances will be sold for one dollar, and three-show tickets are priced at one dollar and fifty cents. As the regular admission charge for single performances is one dollar, those who plan to attend more than one performance have an opportunity to save money in purchasing the two or three-show ticket.

President and Musicians Appear in Dryden

THE Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated Schools were well represented in Dryden, Thursday night of last week, when the Ithaca Chamber of Commerce conducted a meeting of the Dryden Grange which took place in the Congregational Church in that community. The principal speaker of the meeting was President George C. Williams. The senior concert band, directed by Dean Ernest Williams, also was in attendance and played a brief program of popular concert selections. President Williams was introduced by former Mayor Howe of Ithaca. He chose for his topic, "Co-operation" and in dealing with the subject, President Williams stressed the importance of loyalty. At its close a supper was served to the guests.

Frosh Formal is Sparsely Attended But Function Proves Enjoyable

THE Freshman Formal of last Friday night was a distinct social success, though the Class suffered financially in sponsoring the affair. Over fifty couples attended the dance, music for which was furnished by Ray Morey's orchestra. The gymnasium was well decorated in the class colors: green and white. Patrons and patronesses included Dean Powell, Miss Campbell, Miss Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly and Mr. Hathaway. The committee in charge was composed of Joseph Mele, chairman, Mary Holder, Georgette Wein, J. Gaslin, Donald Vaughn and George Mairs.

Third Term Attractive

THE summer school sessions of the Conservatory and the Affiliated Schools are arousing much interest this season. The camps at Saugerties and Singing Cedars hold attraction for band and physical education students, while the fine courses in other departments offer opportunities for a profitable summer to other students.

THE Placement Service of the Institution of Public School Music continues to receive favorable results. The Student Council

THE Student Council is an organization which commands the respect of faculty members and members of the student body alike. On the Council are the Conservatory's most representative undergraduates. It is a group which may well command the respect accorded it. One sometimes wonders, however, if occasionally there is not too great a display of respect for this body. Matters which should come to their attention sometimes are kept from them. A student who feels that he has received an injustice too often is content to adopt a revengeful attitude. He sulkily complains to his intimates and secretly creates unrest. The Student Council lists among its primary faculties the power and interest to consider the problems of Conservatory students. Every student of our Institution is represented in one way or another on the Council. If you have a complaint, see your representative and explain the situation to him. If the occasion demands action it will be dealt with accordingly. And the results will be considerably more satisfying than those derived by persons who bring their troubles to sympathetic but powerless friends.

A Courtesy Committee Recently Organized For Institution

A great many visitors come to Ithaca each year for the purpose of visiting the Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated schools. Until recently no official body had been empowered to extend appropriate greetings to the visitors. With the purpose of correcting this condition, a Courtesy Committee has been organized. In this group are eight representative students whose scholarship and personal character warrant their ability to present the Institution to those to whom it is not familiar. The eight members have been organized into an honorary group, the major purpose of which is to extend hospitality to visitors. On the committee are the Misses Florence Reed, Mildred Alderfer, Barbara Witter and Margaret Smith and Messers Donald Reinsmith, Bernard Mandelkern, Bob de Lany, and Lawrence Sides. They will function under the supervision of Miss Gertrude Evans, Director of Publicity.

The initial meeting of the new organization occurred March 20 in the faculty dining room in Williams Hall, at a luncheon conference. Plans for the work of the organization were formulated and a tentative program was discussed. Present with the committee members and their Supervisor were President Williams and Dean Powell. Also in attendance at the first meeting were the Misses Marion Beck and Virginia Jarvis, substitutes for Miss Witter and Miss Reed who were unable to attend.

The appointment of the Courtesy Committee is timely. The influx of visitors is especially noticeable in the spring and the new group will have much opportunity to do a great work for the Institution.

Magazine Prints Story About Band School

In the editorial section of Jacobs' Band and Orchestra Monthly, March issue, considerable space is devoted to an interesting article concerning the band and orchestra camp which is to be conducted this summer by Dean Williams of the Ithaca Military Band School. The camp is situated in Saugerties, New York, and a staff of prominent instructors has been arranged for. The article appears under the heading, "Keeping Posted."

Not One Red Cent!

How many times have we heard this expression! And to most of us it means comparatively nothing except that it is a clever phrase which is to be used when one wishes to imply that he has little or nothing.

Often the irate father (or uncle, as the case may be) will exclaim that someone has not done as he wished and that he would not get a penny of his money—"not a red cent!" But this type of melodrama has long since passed into decay, and a newer, more concise type has taken its place. In spite of the change in tactics the thought still remains, however.

But what has all this to do with us you are beginning to wonder (and you should). Simply this, gentle reader, that some of these days we'll be in the same boat and are we going to be tolerant, forgiving, and kind? Or will we overlook the fact that we have often been in the same condition? Let's give the other fellow the benefit of the doubt and when a mistake is made let's forget it and try to do better the next time. Then when we are being tried and we ask what they have charged up against us, the answer will be "Not a red cent!"

Sigma Delta Psi To Test

A rigid examination will be given the members of the new fraternity before they are accepted by Sigma Delta Psi. The examination will test their ability in swimming, ball throwing and football kicking. The Ithaca boys are practising for the examiner who will present the test at a future date.

Westminsters Hear Percy Scholes

AMONG the recent visitors to the Westminster Choir School was Percy Scholes, foremost English music critic, and lecturer of note. Mr. Scholes gave a lecture at the Baker Laboratory on the Cornell campus. He was most enthusiastic about the choir and the school and after being introduced by Dr. Williamson, spoke to the student body of the Choir School at one of the Chapel services last week. His remarks were brief and in his usual brilliant manner he thanked Dr. Williamson, and hoped that he would be in Ithaca again soon.

McGovern Express Satisfaction With Williams Students

ALBERT MCGOVERN, the well-known actor-manager, who is to direct three weeks of professional drama in the Little Theater, began intensive rehearsal of his company last Thursday in preparation for the first play, "This Thing Called Love" to be given on March 27, 28 and 29. Expressing his surprise at the ability of the students who will take the minor parts in the comedy, he said recently that he had not been "so enthused," for a long time. "I never saw so much pep in my life," he added.

Mr. McGovern would rather direct students than professionals, he says, because the young actor is willing to be taught. Last year he put the same play on the boards in Milwaukee with an all-star cast but he expressed the opinion that the Ithaca company would give an equally good performance. At least it is rehearsing day and night.

Ethel Wayland will play the leading feminine parts in all the plays, as co-star with her husband.

Incidentally Mr. McGovern feels that the resident company with visiting stars is "what the theater is coming to," and that an acting renaissance can be effected in any American city by this means. Eva LeGallienne's project in New York, for example, has been highly successful.

Mr. McGovern comes to Ithaca directly from New York where he just finished directing a playlet, "The Theme Song" by Estella Taylor (Mrs. Jack Dempsey). He is under contract to return to Milwaukee next season, and has just completed an original play of his own which has been accepted for production.

Ethel Wayland, co-star with Mr. McGovern in the coming three weeks' engagement in Ithaca, is no less famous as a leading woman, and is an actress of exceptional ability and wide reputation. She has been associated with such leading producers as William Gillette in the play "Secret Service," making her debut with the late Henry H. Harris in "Traveling Salesman" and "The Chorus Lady." David Belasco presented her with Francis Starr in his productions, and recently she has played under Manager Duffy in San Francisco and Portland, Ore., and in Dallas, Tex., with the Famous Players Company. Miss Wayland was featured in the Wilcox Players Company in Syracuse and was with June Walker in the road show production of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." For the past two seasons she has played in Milwaukee.

I.S.P.E Officials Go To Important Meeting

DEAN Hill and Coach Chamberlain attended a meeting held at Syracuse last week at which were representatives of the leading colleges of New York state. The meeting was called for the purpose of bringing about agreements among the colleges of the state as to standardizing athletic relations, finances, and procedures. No definite results were accomplished, but plans were made for an effective organization. In attendance with the I. S. P. E. representatives were those of Cornell, Colgate, Rochester, Syracuse, Buffalo, Clarkson, Union, St. Lawrence, St. Bonaventure, R. P. L., Hamilton, and Niagara.

Seniors to Step Out Formally in Near Future

PLANS are being made for a formal "coming out" day for members of the Senior Class. On this day the Seniors will appear in Assembly garbed in their new blazers, orders for which are now being taken. A special assembly program will be presented in honor of the occasion.
